HARLEM'S GOOD RACING.

"Bob" Tucker's Cavalier—Lena Oliver colt Sam Fullen, won the three-quarters of a mile handicap for two-year-olds yesterday at Harlem in an easy gallop and demonstrated to those that had underestimated him that he is a colt of pretensions to good class. He has phenomenal speed and the farther the route is the better he seems to like it. This is a strapping big individual and looks like one that can carry all kinds of weight and do whatever is asked of him. He was bred at "Wood" Hoffman's mother's farm and ran in "Wood" Hoffman's name the first time he ever started, but previous to going to Saratoga, "Bob" Tucker got hold of him. This is the fourth time the colt has started and he has won every time with the exception of his first time out. Then he was beaten through bad racing luck and lack of condition in a hard drive and by a narrow margin.

In yesterday's handicap the talent had a high measure of respect for Sam Fullen and 8 to 5 and 9 to 5 were the best price ever offered against him. He eventually closed favorite at 3 to 2 with Thrive second choice at 8 to 5. As far as a sharp contest was concerned the race was very tame. Sam Fullen broke last but well on his stride and before a furlong had been run he was in front and stay'd there to the end, winning as he pleased by two lengths from Thrive and Florizor. Unwisely he was bumped in the stretch and finished fourth.

Sam Wegner's Croesus has deceived his owner and backers several times recently, but in the mile and an eighth race, which was run fifth, he "delivered the goods" handsomely. This was by far the closest and most interesting race of the day. The field was well bunched all the way and through the stretch it narrowed down to a pretty struggle between Croesus, Periwig, Plantain and Jackanapes. All four were hard at it from the eighth post home, but Croesus, strongly ridden by Hamilton, proved the gamest and got the decision by a nose from Periwig. The latter's race was such an improvement over his last that one could hardly believe it was the same horse. He belongs to W. F. Schulte, whose horses usually run to their form, so there was no chance for the scandal-monger to get his work in. Still the form reversal was marked just the same.

Frank Bell, fresh from St. Louis, easily took May Beach into camp, and over his win the St. Louis contingent cleaned up roundly. Marcus Cartwright is credited with winning over $3,000 on the race.

May Beach was a 7 to 10 shot and heavily backed, but from the drop of the flag she never had a chance to beat Frank Bell. The latter had much the best of the weights and also had speed galore. He headed May Beach early, and after stepping the first three-eighths in 35 seconds, had everything his own way.

Antiquary and Hugh Peany walked away with the first and third races and Free Lady had no trouble in winning the last. All three were at short prices and heavily backed, and consequently their victories were popular.

FOUR MILE, A HAWTHORNE

It is well within bounds to say that several hundred thousand people now living in the city have at one time or another witnessed racing over the local tracks, yet of this vast number it is doubtful if five hundred ever sat in the delectable seats of viewing a four mile race. A four mile contest may have taken place over a Chicago race track in the old days of long distance racing but if such was the case it has passed from memory. The secretaries of the local tracks have both been observant of the prevailing tendency to foster and encourage long distance racing and both have provided a number of purses that have resulted in excellent races at a mile and a half and two miles but Secretary Harry Kuhl has been the first to provide for an old-fashioned four mile dash. The program book for next week at Hawthorne calls for a race at that distance to take place Saturday, September 9. It has been wisely made a selling race so that owners who have horses they are sure can go the long route can apportion their own weights.

There is abundant material here to make a rattling good field for this race. At St. Louis, on short notice, Secretary Joe Murphy secured a field of five starters at four miles, August 22, and a capital race as well, Barrier going the four miles in 7:25. In the old days of four mile races such a performance would have been considered nothing short of remarkable and would have been awarded columns of fine descriptive writing. Here Barrier, Kask, Jack Bradley, Croesus, Harry Nutter, Barton Tontons, Fatherland, Banquo II, Plantain and a score more of good staying horses are available and can readily be prepared in time for a contest replete with interest and sure to attract a great concourse of spectators. Croesus is a horse that should run a great four miles under light weight. So should Joely Roger and Harry Nutter.

Clawson handled him perfectly. Maid of Harlem finished strongly and likes a distance. George Boyd was poorly handled and stopped badly in the last quarter. Spurs ran a good race.

Knight of the Garter was overweighted and handled with bad judgment.

Winner—Ch. c. by Dandie Dinnont—Gyna. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly; third and fourth were driving. Antiquary was much the best and went to the front on call in the stretch. He is a good colt that can run in any kind of going. Lamity showed fine speed, but stopped as if short. Juggler II. did well, but was tiring at the end. The race was always between the first three. Rose, on Juggler II., pulled in on Brown Dick and was the cause of his going down. Ramlet ran a fair race. Scratched—141392 Andez, 105.

Overweights—141392 Andez, 3 pounds. Antiquary, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Lamity, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Juggler II., show, 6 to 1. Fantasy, place, 7 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Cavalier—Len Oliver. Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won very easily; the next three were driving hard. Sam Fullen is a grand colt and won as he pleased. He was pricking his ears and cantering in the last eighth. Beauchamp was lucky to get through on the inside down the backstretch. Still he could have gone around and won just the same. Thrive was staggering and all out in the stretch. He caused some interference but not enough to call for judicial action. Florizar finished very strongly. Unightly tired at the end. She was also interfered with slightly. Talma belongs in lower company. Overweights—Talma, 2 pounds. Sam Fullen, place, 1 to 2. Thrive, place, 1 to 2. Florizar, place, 2 to 1. Unightly, place, 7 to 10.

Overweights—Talma, 2 pounds.
Sam Fuller, place, 1 to 2. Thrive, place, 1 to 2. Florizar, place, 2 to 1. Unsightly, place, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. g. by Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward. Off at the second break to a good start. Won easily; second in a mild drive; third and fourth driving hard. Hugh Penny was the best and had a fine turn of speed. He is no longer reliable, but today ran one of his best races. Burns got him away flying and made every post a winning one. Nickey D. was giving away a lot of weight and ran a fine race. He is a fairly good racehorse. Celtic Bard was bumped and jostled several times during the journey. Catastrophe was roughly treated and finished strongly. Bitter Root ran a bad race. Throw it out. Scratched—14310 Theresa H., 104; (14314) King's Highway, 109; 14250 Galileo, 107.

Overweights—Golden Rod, 2 pounds. Hugh Penny, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Nickey D., place, 5 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Celtic Bard, show, 7 to 5. Bitter Root, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. g. by Big Henry—Flora Leach. Off at the first break to an excellent start. Won handily; second driven out. Third eased at the end after being beaten. Frank Bell had the most speed and tow-roped May Beach in the first half. He is a very fast colt but cannot go a route. May Beach is strictly a front runner. When anything outruns her she loses heart. Newsgatherer could never get within gun shot of Frank Bell and May Beach. Verify bled and was eased up. Frank Bell, place, 7 to 10. May Beach, place, out. Newsgatherer, place, 2 to 1. Verify, place, evens.

Overweights—Croesus, 2 pounds; Fintan, 2. Croesus, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Periwig, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Plantain, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Jackanapes, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Br. g. by Durbayne—Abrie Loyne. Post 12 minutes. Start good. The first four were all in a heap and driving to the limit. Croesus got up in the very last stride. He is a glutton for punishment and has been used at work on him for the last half mile. Periwig evoked with a start. He has really won a race which was a vast improvement over his last performance. Plantain seems to have settled. He acted surely at the post and did not show his usual speed. Jackanapes had a rough journey. Hamilton and Conley had Burns in between them on the far turn and almost drew him. Fintan showed speed. Overweights—Croesus, 2 pounds; Fintan, 2. Croesus, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Free Lady got a running start and had speed to load. She is in good form now. J. J. T. ran his race. He came strong and true under punishment. Diggs stopped but came again in the stretch. Albertvale ran a good race. Mark him for a muddy track. Brightie S. quit bly when the pinch came. Scratched—14296 Rollins, 107; 14310 Warren Point, 107; 14294 Blue Lick, 103; 14139 Long Dandy, 100.
